Interview

Q & A

Introduction

- Greeting
- Name (Nickname)
- Academic Background
- Work Experience
- Generally what you do in your job
- Your availability

Introduction

Sample answer

Good afternoon Sir!

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to be interviewed here today.
I am …… from Myanmar. You can call me …. I finished Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering. I have over 5 years of work experience in construction industry in Myanmar. I worked as a site engineer, Quantity Surveyor and Drafter. Mostly I handled residential projects, retail & shopping mall projects and infrastructure projects. I am looking for a job in Singapore now so I am available to join to your company immediately.

That is a brief introduction about me Sir!
Thank you!

2. How did you know about this job?

- Provide the place that you got the information for the job vacancy

2. How did you know about this job?

Sample answer

- I got this job information from job street, job center or linkin.

- I am active job seeker and looking for a Quantity Surveyor in Singapore. One of my friend gave me your company contact so I submitted my resume Whether you have available position or not.

2. What did you do in your last job? Describe the projects you handled.

- Provide your last company name
- Explain the sector/industry you worked for
- Your position & the projects you handled
- Detailed job responsibilities you had

3. What did you do in your last job? Describe the projects you handled.

Sample answer

My last job is at AOK Myanmar company which is one of the electronic device distribution company in Myanmar. I worked as a sale engineer & technical support engineer. Most of my day-to-day responsibilities are -

Beside this experience, I worked as a …… in ……. Company.

These are about my background experience Sir.

3. What did you do in your last job? Describe the projects you handled.

Sample answer

My last job is at AOK Myanmar company which is one of steel structure company in Myanmar. I worked as a structural designer engineer. Mostly we handled residential projects, warehouse projects and infrastructure projects. I have done a lot of projects for structural design and I use "Etabs" software for Structural Analysis in super structure design , "Safe" software for foundation Design, and I use "Ran" connection software for steel structure connection.Most of my day-to-day responsibilities are -

Beside this experience, I worked as a …… in ……. Company.

These are about my background experience Sir.

4. What is your greatest strength?

- Your academic strength
- Your experience
- General strength (personal skills)
- Specific strength (Specific work related skills)

4. What is your greatest strength?

Sample answer

I would like to describe my strength is that I am an experienced M & E engineer and handled a lot of projects. So I believe I can do the assigned tasks and job scope. I always learn new things so that would be helpful for me to be familiar easily with the new workplace. I am good at negotiating and coordinating with other colleagues for project cooperation. I can work under pressure and can meet the deadline. These are my strengths Sir.

5. What is your weakness?

- Honest answer for the answer that you need to improve
  (should avoid mentioning your communication skill or professional skill as weakness)

5. What is your weakness?

Sample Answer

This is my very first overseas job, I speak English but I might negotiate a lot in the new community for communication. I don't have any experience working outside of the country. It might be my weakness, but I like to challenge myself. I believe I would learn fast to be familiar in the new society.

5. What is your personality? How did your friend describe you in your real life?

- You have to describe what kinds of person you are

6. What is your personality? How did your friend describe you in your real life?

- I am hardworking and hamble person.

- Most of my friends give me a nickname, that is, "A busy bee". Because I'm always busy with doing something or learning something.

5. What is your personality? How did your friend describe you in your real life?

7. What will you be in the next 5 year?

- Your future plan
- How ambitious your are
- You are looking for a long-term job

7. What will you be in the next 5 year?

- I am looking for a long-term job in Singapore. In the next five year, I believe I will become a skillful and proficient site engineer. As a loyal and trustworthy employee, I could bring positive and productive result to your business. I will utilize my ability and skill to contribute to your business. In the next five year, I could get a promotion to senior position in your organization Sir.

8.What do you know about the company?

- Give the profile of the company
- Describe generally about their business or projects

9.Why should we hire you? Do you think you are a qualified person for this job?

- Focus on how you are academically or professionally strong in your job
- What you can bring to the company

9.Why should we hire you? Do you think you are a qualified person for this job?

- Yes, Sir. As an experienced Electrical engineer I have confidence that I can perform well for this position. I also have a good understanding of the Job scope and I am brilliant at team work & good communication skills. As an experienced one in the competitive working industry, I can manage well for the work pressure, stress & deadline. I promise that I will keep trying to show that I am a suitable person for the role, bringing positive results to the team. There are reasons that I can be a trustworthy one to be hired in your company.

10. What kind of working environment do you prefer to work?

-I prefer challenging working environment which can bring me to upgrade my professional skill and career improvement. I also want to work in a safe place Sir.

11. What is your biggest challenge in your previous job?

- Describe the challenge
- How you handle it or how you solve it
- Lesson learnt from this challenge

11. What is your biggest challenge in your previous job?

12. Why did you decide to leave from your job?

- Give an appropriate answer of the reason for leaving

Sample answer

I decided to leave from my job because I want to do new challenges outside of the country, especially in Singapore. So I decided to take a break from my job and now trying to get a job in Singapore.

13.What is your expected salary?

Sample answer

My expected salary is 2500 in sin dollar and it is negotiable.

You are not qualified to get Spass.

- I understand that my expected salary would be a bit low to get the Spass. I can work with 2500 and it is OK for me.

The company can arrange at your convenience to get the Spass.

14. Have you ever experienced leadership or initiative at your job?

- Your actual leadership experience
- If not, you should mention you will try your best for this leadership role

15. Why do you want to work in Singapore?

- The reason for working in Singapore
- Give honest answer

16. Do you have any question?

- Can you pls provide my detailed job scope Sir?
- What kinds of working culture do you have? Is it 5 days a week or 6 days a week?